Daniel Bates

I have been teaching in a range of educational and cultural settings for the past 10 years. After gaining a diploma in TESOL I began teaching at Wonkwang University in South Korea. I returned to England after two years to complete a MA in English Language Teaching and Applied Linguistics at King's College, London. After that I worked as an English Lecturer at Mahanakorn University of Technology, Bangkok for a number of years before moving to Tokyo in 2015. I have specialized in language assessment and have taught IELTS extensively over the past six years. I firmly believe in the power of education and knowledge in changing people's lives for the better and I am committed to helping each and every one of my students attain their goals. I obtained my Bachelor's degree in Creative Music Technology and outside of the classroom I am a keen musician. I play guitar and like to write, perform and record my own original music.
